Welcome to Wolters Kluwer Wiki Watch. Wolters Kluwer Law & Business is excited to sponsor this blog as a forum for analysis, commentary, and discussion of information technology, computer law, data privacy, intellectual property, e-commerce, and litigation issues relating to information law.

Wolters Kluwer is one of the most respected publishers in the world, and we are committed to developing new media products that meet the needs of our customers.

We will draw contributions from an international group of legal professionals: lawyers, academics, and business analysts. The blog will have a discussion forum and will feature a guest blogger's analysis of current developments in the field of information law.

We encourage interaction, and hope that we can promote debate on particular issues.

We hope that you will visit the blog often, and we invite you to participate in the discussion. We look forward to building a lively forum for discussion.
